ARTICLE 2 - OFFICE

- 2.1 Principal Office. The principal office for the transaction of business of the Corporation ("principal executive office") shall be located in the City of Oxnard, Ventura County, California. The directors may change the location of the principal office. Any change of this location shall be noted by the Secretary on these bylaws
- 2.2 Other Offices. The Board of Directors may at any time establish branch or subordinate offices at any place or places where the Corporation is qualified to do business.

- 3.1 General Purposes. This Corporation is a nonprofit public benefit corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation law for charitable and religious purposes. The Corporation acknowledges the local, national, and international concepts of Habitat for Humanity, and accepts the principles of tithing. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of the publication or dissemination of materials with the purpose of attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office or for or against any cause or measure being submitted to the people for a vote.
- 3.2 Specific Purposes. Within the context of the general purposes stated above, this Corporation shall:
  - (a) Form a local Board of Directors organized in accordance with state laws governing nonprofit organizations.
  - (b) Operate in such a way that will acknowledge the local, national and international concepts and principals of Habitat for Humanity, as set forth in the Affiliate Covenant between Habitat for Humanity International and this Corporation, identified as "Affiliate" in said Covenant.
  - (c) Work together with donors, volunteers, and others in the community to create decent, affordable housing for those in need and to develop a program of constructing and renovating modest but adequate housing to be sold to, or be retained by, their owners at no profit and no interest, and which program may include plans to own or lease real and personal property to be used to further the purposes of the Corporation. Any leasing done by the Corporation must have the ultimate aim of home ownership.
  - (d) Establish and maintain a list of guidelines to choose recipient families for this housing through a non-discriminatory selection process, including development of a list of expectations for participation by the recipient families and the establishment of payment programs. Such expectations shall include a policy of the Corporation regarding the income requirements of recipient families as a percentage of the Ventura County median income, which percentage may vary from time to time for specific projects as approved by a majority vote of the Board of Directors as well as, but not limited to, contractual agreements, down payment amounts, progress payment(s), "sweat equity," and community responsibility. In no event shall income requirements be more than eighty (80) percent of Ventura County median income.

- (h) Tithe a percentage of the monthly unrestricted cash donations and ReStore net income, plus house sponsorship money received without restrictions on tithe, received by Habitat for Humanity of Ventura County, Inc., to Habitat for Humanity International for overseas projects. The amount of the tithe shall be determined by a policy adopted and approved by a majority of the Board of Directors, which policy may be amended from time to time, and a vote of a majority of the Board of Directors may be used to amend the amount or percentage in any month or fiscal year, for that month or fiscal year only, should the Board of Directors determine that circumstances warrant such an amendment. However, in no event shall the tithe percentage be less than ten (10) percent without amending these bylaws.
- (i) Establish and maintain on-going plans for the Corporation to raise money to be used to promote the purposes of the Corporation. The Corporation shall receive, maintain, and accept as assets of the Corporation any property, whether real or personal property, by way of gift, bequest, device or purchase from any person, firm, trust or corporation to be held, administered and disposed of exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and in accordance with and pursuant to the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation; but no gift, bequest, device or purchase of any such property shall be received and made and accepted if it is conditioned or limited in such manner as shall require the disposition of income or principal to any organization other than a "charitable organization" or for any purposes other than a "charitable purpose" which would jeopardize the status of the Corporation as an entity exempt from federal income tax pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.
- (j) Develop ways to create a spirit of loving community among the people involved in the Corporation.

- (b) Vacancies. Vacancies shall be filled by a majority vote of the Directors then in office, whether or not less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining Director. - 5.9 Director Conflict of Interest, Restriction on Interested Directors and Restriction on Public Sector Representation.
  - Conflict of Interest Transactions. A conflict of interest transaction is a transaction with (a) the Corporation in which a Director of the Corporation has a direct or indirect interest. For purposes of this section, a Director has an indirect interest in a transaction if: (i) another entity in which the Director has a material interest or in which the Director is a general partner or owner is a party to the transaction, or (ii) another entity of which the Director is a director, officer, general partner, agent, employee or trustee is a party to the transaction. A conflict of interest transaction is not voidable or a basis for imposing liability on the Director if the transaction was fair at the time it was entered into and is approved by the Board in advance as hereinafter provided. A transaction in which a Director has a conflict of interest may be approved in advance by the vote of the Board if (i) the material facts of the transaction and the Director's interest are disclosed in writing or known to the Board; and (ii) the Directors approving the transaction in good faith reasonably believe that the transaction is fair to the Corporation. For purposes of this section, a conflict of interest transaction is approved if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors on the Board, who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction, but a transaction may not be approved by a single Director. If a majority of the Directors on the Board, who have no direct or indirect interest in the vote to approve the transaction is present, a quorum is deemed to be present for the purpose of taking action under this section. The presence of or a vote cast by, a Director with a direct or indirect interest in the transaction does not affect the validity of any action taken under this section if the transaction is otherwise approved as hereinabove provided.
  - (b) Restriction on Interested Directors. No more than twenty-five (25) percent of the persons serving on the Board of Directors at any time may be interested persons. An interested person is: (1) any person being compensated by the Corporation for services rendered to it within the previous 12 months, whether as a full-time or part-time employee, independent contractor, or otherwise; and (2) any brother, sister, ancestor, descendant, spouse, brother-in-law, mother-in-law, or father-in-law of any such person. However, any violation of the provisions of the paragraph shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any transaction entered into by the Corporation.
  - (c) Restriction on Public Sector Representation. Habitat for Humanity of Ventura County, a non-profit organization, may not have more than one-third of its governing board's membership representative of the public sector (elected or appointed public officials, public employees, employees of the participating jurisdiction, persons appointed by public officials whether or not low income).

5.10 Non-Liability and Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

(a) Non-Liability. The Directors and Officers, whether individually or collectively, shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or other obligations of the Corporation. Nothing in these Bylaws (or in any policies, guidelines, statements of objectives or mission or similar document) is intended to elevate or enhance the duties or liabilities of a Director or Officer under applicable law, to abrogate in any way protections afforded directors and officers under applicable law or to affect adversely their ability to rely on other persons to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Page 5 of 13 1.27.20 Amended Bylaws

- (b) Indemnification. To the fullest extent permitted by law, this Corporation shall have the power to indemnify its Directors, Officers, employees and other persons described in Section 5238(a) of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, including persons formerly occupying any such positions, against all expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with any "proceeding" as that term is used in this section, and including an action by or in the right of the Corporation, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a person described in that section. "Expenses" as used in this section 5.10 shall have the same meaning as in Section 5238 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.
  - i. Approval of Indemnity. On written request to the Board by any person seeking indemnification under Section 5238(b) or Section 5238(c) of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, the Board shall promptly decide under Section 5238(e) of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law whether the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 5238(h) or Section 5138(c) of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law has been met and, if so, the Board shall authorize indemnification.
  - ii. Advancement of Expenses. To the fullest extent permitted by law and except as otherwise determined by the Board in a specific instance, expenses incurred by a person seeking indemnification under this section 5.10 in defending any proceeding covered thereunder shall be advanced by the Corporation before final disposition of the proceeding, on receipt by the Corporation of an undertaking by or on behalf of that person that the advance will be repaid unless it is ultimately found that the person is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation for those expenses.

ARTICLE 6 - MEETINGS OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- 6.1 Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors/Corporation shall be held during the month of June or at a time designated by the Board of Directors.

- 6.5 Quorum. A majority of the positions filled on the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board, and the act of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board, unless a greater number is specifically required by law. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business, despite the withdrawal of some Directors, if any action taken or decision made is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for that meeting.
- 6.6 Waiver of Notice. The transactions of any meeting of the Board of Directors, however called and noticed or wherever held, shall be as valid as though taken at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if: (a) a quorum is present, and (b) either before or after the meeting, each of the directors not present signs a written waiver of notice, a consent to holding the meeting, or an approval of the minutes. The waiver of notice or consent need not specify the purpose of the meeting. Any such waiver may be provided via email or facsimile. All waivers, consents, and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Notice of a meeting shall also be deemed given to any Director who attends the meeting without protesting before or at its commencement about the lack of adequate notice.
- 6.7 Adjournment. A majority of the Directors present, whether or not constituting a quorum, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place.
- 6.8 Adjourned Meeting. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given, unless the meeting is adjourned for more than 24 hours, in which case personal notice of time and place shall be given before the time of the adjourned meeting to the Directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment.
- 6.9 Action without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors, may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board, individually or collectively, consent in writing to that action. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the Board of Directors. Email and facsimile consent shall be acceptable. Officers shall serve a term of one (1) year or until their successors are elected and may be reelected for a maximum of three (3) consecutive terms, except that the Executive Director may serve for an unlimited number of terms, at the discretion of the Board. Then, the officer shall sit out one (1) year before being elected to the same office again. Officers may, but need not, be Directors, except that the Chairperson and Vice Chairperson shall be Directors. Each nominee for the position of an officer must possess, within the ability of the Board or the Executive Committee to determine, the skills, time, willingness, and such other qualifications as may be required in the pursuit of the duties of the office for which the nomination of the person is being considered.

In the event of a vacancy in the office of Executive Director, the Chairperson shall serve as the interim Executive Director and shall have the powers and duties of the Executive Director of the Corporation as set forth in these Bylaws, until such time as the Board elects a replacement Executive Director or an Interim Executive Director.
- (b) Executive Director. The Executive Director shall be the general manager of the Corporation and shall, subject to the supervision and control of the Board of Directors, supervise, direct and control the affairs of the Corporation and activities of the employees of the Corporation.
