

Development Associate Intern

Habitat for Humanity of Ventura County (HFHVC) brings people together to build homes, communities and hope in partnership with those in need. Since our founding, Habitat has built 77 new homes and renovated/repared hundreds more, building strength, stability, self-reliance and shelter throughout Ventura County.

The Development Associate Intern will apply for grants and fulfill grant contract commitments for corporate, foundation and government grants. This position will also assist with gift processing, updating donor records and pulling mailing lists. This is a 4–5-month internship position while current staff is on medical leave and has the potential to grow into a full-time permanent position.
